

12th Annual Tennessee Walking Horse Clinic Featuring: Officer Mary Hamilton

Safety on the Trail plus De-spooking Your Horse

Mary Hamilton is a Mounted Police Instructor who has worked in Law Enforcement for over 25 years. A graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Mary is a Police Officers Standards and Training certified instructor and a Field Training Officer. She is a certified Level 3 Mounted Police riding instructor through the American Riding Instructors Association. Mary is a nationally certified Emergency Medical Technician and received the Meritorious State of Minnesota Female Police Officer of the Year award in 1995.

Currently Mary is a training consultant for the South African Police Services and is training police horses and riders for the Republican National Presidential Convention in 2008. She devotes her creative energy to developing customized training programs to improve show ring performance, mount obedience and de-spooking trail horses utilizing training methods used in training police horses.

At this clinic Officer Mary will be speaking and demonstrating trail safety. The afternoon will be devoted to de-spooking your horse. She will be working horses and riders using a variety of obstacles used to train police horses. Whether you come as an auditor or as a rider, you will enjoy this clinic.
